

2weeks Summer Course in English

Meiji University Law in Japan Program

July 23(Mon.) to August 3 (Fri.), 2012

Liberty Tower, Meiji University, Tokyo

Meiji University Law in Japan Program is an intensive two-week English program arranged for foreign students who would like to learn about Japanese law in its social and cultural context. We welcome participants both with / without an academic background in Law.

Course Schedule of 2011(consists of lectures & field trips)

		9:00-12:00	13:30-16:30
21-Jul	Thu	Registration & Orientation	Judicial System
		Legal Profession
22-Jul	Fri	Constitutional Law	Visit the Supreme Court and a Law Office
25-Jul	Mon	Civil Justice	Criminal Process
26-Jul	Tue	Visit the Summary court	Visit the District court
27-Jul	Wed	Law of Enterprise (1)	Visit the Immigration Bureau
28-Jul	Thu	Law and Information Technologies	Criminal Law
29-Jul	Fri	Law of Enterprise (2)	Visit Prison
1-Aug	Mon	Visit the Diet and the Legislation Bureau	Visit a Law Firm
2-Aug	Tue	Competition Law	Tax Law
3-Aug	Wed	International Law	Family Law

Note: Shaded areas are field trips; some changes may be made in the 2012 program

Participants' Voices; Lectures

(Liberty Tower, Meiji University)

Useful info about the background of the Law which helps to better understand/interpret it.

Overall choice of fields of law was very nice & satisfactory.

Photo Images of 2011 Program

Meiji Univ. moot court lecture 	Welcome party 	Classroom lecture(1)
FT (Supreme Court) 	FT (Ministry of Justice Museum) 	FT (Tokyo District Court)
Classroom lecture(2) 	FT(Immigration, Narita Airport) 	Farewell party

Participants' Voices; Field-trips

(National Diet, Tokyo)

It was very nice to have the opportunities to visit these places as it is not so easy to do individually.

Very well chosen places (also because of the differences).

Yokohama Prison: Very special experience!

The attorneys' efforts in and out of court which we heard at the law office was full with real-life examples and inside stories...I really wanted to hear more about it!!

Founded in central Tokyo back in 1881, Meiji University will mark its 130th anniversary in 2011. Being one of the leading private universities in Japan, it was selected by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology's "Global 30" Project for Establishing Core Universities for Internationalization (2009).

Law in Japan Program is the pioneering figure for this G30 Project conducted in Meiji University.

Meiji University School of Law (明治大学法学部「ローインジャパンプログラム」)
 1-1 Kanda-Surugadai, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, Japan 101-8301
 E-mail: law_jp@kisc.meiji.ac.jp

Please check our webpage (http://www.meiji.ac.jp/hogaku/law_jp/) & iTunesU for more information with the Law in Japan PR video!!