

Ikebana Hands-on Workshop

We are excited to hold an Ikebana (Japanese flower arrangement) hands-on workshop for a cultural exchange between Japanese and international students at Nakano campus! We have invited a professional Ikebana teacher for this special event. Ikebana is a traditional Japanese art that expresses the beauty of space by arranging fresh-cut flowers. Please immerse yourself in traditional Japanese culture and use this opportunity to meet other students.

1. Date: Friday, July 5th 2013
Door opens at 4:30pm
Starts at 5:00pm
Ends at 6:00pm
2. Place: Community Room 1F Nakano campus
(In front of International Exchange Lounge)
3. Content: Ikebana workshop with hands-on experience
4. Instructor: Naohiro Kasuya, next grand Master, from Ichiyou-style Ikebana
5. Audience: International students and Japanese Students
6. Enrollment Capacity: First 20 people
(Registration required)
*No need to register for observation only.
7. Bring: Student ID card, newspaper, plastic bag
8. Fee: ¥500 for supplies (Please pay when you register)
9. Registration: International Collaboration at the office on 3rd floor, Nakano campus.
Fill out the application form and turn it in with the fee.
10. Registration Period: From Monday, June 17th to Friday, June 28th
Weekdays from 9:00am to 6:00pm
We will close registration as the list reaches the capacity (20 people).
11. Collaboration with: Ichiyou-style Ikebana headquarter
12. Hosted by:
Nakano Research and Educational Support Office
Nakano Campus Administrative Office

