

130th Anniversary issue of Meiji University School of Law

November 1, 2011

CONTENTS

Articles

Institutional issues to nurture the lawyer, especially today's problems of Law School in Japan Hiromi Naya (1)
The Revocation of Offers and the Precontractual LiabilityEmiko Ariga (31)
Shareholders' Agreement in Japanese casesKoichi Inaniwa (59)
Global Governance of Nuclear Fuel Cycle by the Civil SocietyTadahiro Katsuta (87)
The Customary Law of the Manorial Court in Medieval EnglandTetsumi Kato (113)
"Ignorantia legis neminem excusat" and civil liability for copyright InfringementToshiya Kaneko (139)
Eine Einführung in den sogenannten Missbrauch des StrafantragsrechtsMutsumi Kurosawa (169)
The Interdisciplinarity of Medical Law : The project to establish a comprehensive and specialized resource center for medicine, law and ethics (ELM)Tomoyo Konishi (193)
Analytic meanings of words "thought and conscience" and their problemsNorikatsu Sasagawa (219)
Telephone Company and freedom of speech in United StatesHidetomo Sasaki (245)
Gedanken über das ÜbersetzenTsuneo Sunaga (273)
Übergang der Rechte des Versicherten an der versicherten Sache auf den VersichererLiang chen (287)
A Study of Hasuda Ichigoro : A Poet of Sakurada-monTakeshi Tokuda (315)
Die Struktur des vertraglichen Schuldverhältnisses : Über dieses heutige VerständnisJun Nagasaka (343)
Thinking about 'What is an American' : A Historical Perspective and the Present SituationJunko Yagasaki (367)
TRAIN THE BODY, CULTIVATE THE MIND and WEAVE THE WORDSMasanobu Yamaguchi (393)
Continuity and Discontinuity in the Japanese Criminal Procedure : especially on the Concept of "Count"Michio Yamada (425)
A Corpus-based Approach to Written Judgments for Lay-judge TrialsShugo Hotta (471)

PUBLISHED BY

THE INSTITUTE OF LAW, MEIJI UNIVERSITY

(MEIJI DAIGAKU HOUGAKUBU SOURITSU 130th KINENRONBUNSHU HENSHU IINKAI)