10. Visa

< Having Residence Status in Japan >

- i) Those who have a “College Student” visa

For admission, you do not need to submit any documents to the Immigration Bureau under the Ministry of Justice.

- ii) Those who have a visa other than “College Student” visa, but want to obtain a “College Student” visa.

Apply for changing the residence status by yourself. Please ask for the Acceptance Letter when you follow and complete the admission procedures. Using this certificate, it is possible to change the status to a “College Student” visa in Japan.

However, as a general rule, those who enter Japan with a “Temporary Visitor” visa are not allowed to change the residence status in Japan. They may leave Japan once in order to obtain a “College Student” visa.

* Prior to entering Meiji University, those who have enrolled in Japanese language educational facilities or a vocational school (Japanese language school, Japanese language course in a university or junior college, and other training schools) in Japan are required to submit the institution’s attendance certificate to the Immigration Bureau of the Ministry of Justice in Japan when you extend the period of stay and apply to change the residence status. This certificate must be issued by your educational institution. There is a possibility that this application could be rejected.

< Not having residence status in Japan >

Please apply for a “College Student” visa at a Japanese embassy or consulate in your country.

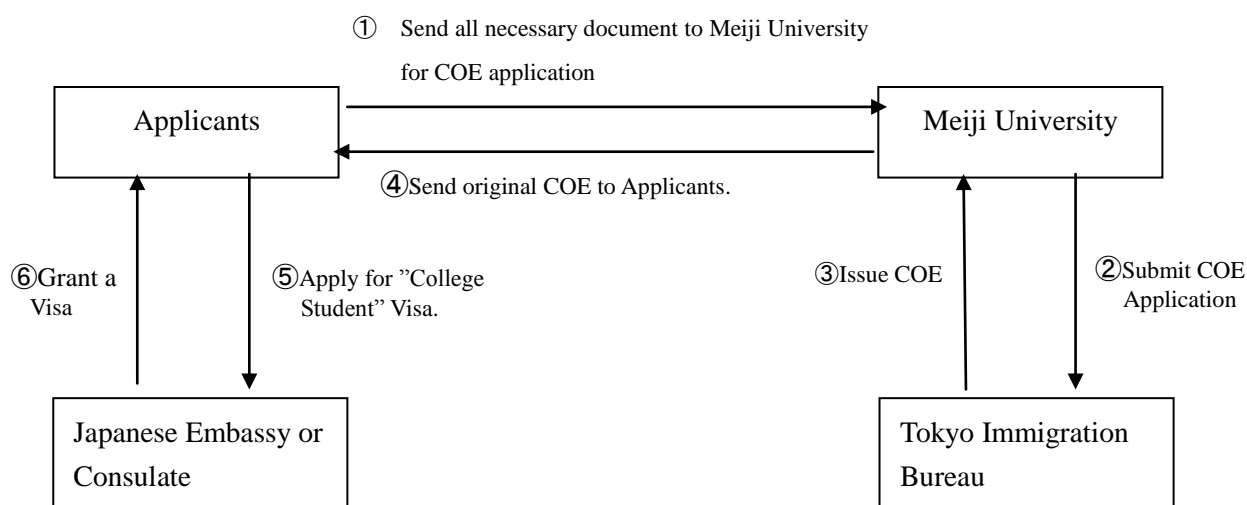

If you obtain the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) from the Tokyo Regional Immigration Bureau of the Ministry of Justice in advance, generally it is easier to apply for the “College Student” visa with this certificate.

If you have relatives, a financial sponsor or a scholarship in Japan, please request a proxy application for the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) from the Tokyo Regional Immigration Bureau of the Ministry of Justice. If you need a proxy application for a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) by Meiji University, please submit the required documents when completing the admission procedures.

Required documents to apply for a COE through Meiji University will be mailed with the Admission documents in April.

Meiji University is not responsible if your visa application is rejected by the Ministry of Justice.
