

English Track Curriculum Outline

		1st Year	2nd Year	3rd Year	4th Year
Japanese Studies	Japanese Culture Program	Manga Culture A·B	Cultural Studies in Budo (Japanese Martial Arts) A·B Japanese Representational Arts A·B	Japanese Cinema A·B Performing Arts A·B Animation Culture A·B Otaku Culture A·B	Edo Studies A·B Japanese Religion A·B
	Japanese Social System Program	Art Business A·B Introduction to Mass Communication	Japanese Social Systems A·B	Japanese Manufacturing Management A·B Contents Industry A·B Intellectual Property Management from a Cultural Perspective A·B	Japanese Mass Media A·B
International Studies		International History A·B Cross-Cultural Education A·B Comparative Religious Studies Language & Culture A·B	Peace Studies Cultural History of Fashion A·B	Multicultural Community Building Immigration Policy Studies	Applied Linguistics A·B English Linguistics A·B
General Studies		Global Japanese Studies Sports & Physical Exercise A·B Japanese Expression (Writing·Speaking) Sociology A·B Political Science A·B Economics A·B	Japanese Studies Seminar Internship Business Administration A·B Japanese History A·B
Seminar Themes			Seminar 2 A· 2 B	Seminar 3 A· 3 B	Seminar 4 A· 4 B
Foreign Language Program	English	Study-Abroad Program		Integrated English 1 A· 1 B Integrated English 2 A· 2 B	Integrated English 3 A· 3 B Practical Drama A·B
	Japanese Language Program		Beginning-level Japanese Low-intermediate Japanese High-intermediate Japanese Advanced-level Japanese

This curriculum outline is subject to change.

Students are able to take classes that are offered in Japanese (conditions may apply).

To view all the classes that the School of Global Japanese Studies provides, please check the site below.

©School of Global Japanese Studies Curriculum