INSTRUCTION

1. Type A and B require a different type of 'Research Proposal'.

Type A (Exam for Businesspersons)

Write your 'Research Proposal' that defines your study plan and research (the theme of master's thesis in MBS you're planning at the present time) theme based on the challenges and/or problems raised from your work experiences and/or social activity.

Type B (Exam for the others)

Write your 'Research Proposal' that defines your study plan and research theme (the theme of master's thesis in MBS you're planning at the present time) and the reason you want to study in MBS.

2. Format of 'Research Proposal'

- Type your detailed research plan in English from 5 to 8 page-long excluding the cover by Microsoft Word or other word processing software.
- Research Proposal should be printed in A4-size and single-sided printing.
- The font size should be 12 point. It doesn't matter how many lines or words the Research Proposal includes. Tables and charts can be used. Each page should have three-centimeter margins in the top and bottom.
- Clip together in the top left-hand corner of the document. Don't staple together.
- Each page excluding the cover should have a page count (e.g. 1/5, 1 of 5) in the bottom.
- Research Proposal written by handwriting will not be acceptable.
