

Graduate School of Global Governance Degree Requirements for Ph.D. Program

【Name of degree】

Ph.D. in Global Governance

【Requirements for submission】

1. Term of enrollment

- (1) Those who have been enrolled in the doctoral course for over 3 academic years and received the necessary supervision.
- (2) Those who have been enrolled for over 3 academic years and have once left the university may re-enter within 8 years from matriculation with approval from the Faculty Committee.

2. Requirements for completion

- (1) Students must receive research guidance from their supervisor.
- (2) Completion of Thesis Writing A to F (total of 12 credits) is compulsory.
- (3) Other than Thesis Writing, at least 4 credits must be earned from elective courses according to a supervisor's request.
- (4) Students are also allowed to register for courses of other graduate schools and inter-departmental courses with a supervisor's approval.

3. Research achievements

Students must publish not less than 3 papers in academic journals (at least one journal outside of Meiji University is required), among which at least 1 paper should be blind peer-reviewed. Students must also conduct at least 1 presentation at an international conference. Scheduled publication and presentation can be counted as well. All research achievements must be satisfied by the specified deadline of submission on next page.

4. Qualifying examination for Ph.D. candidacy

Students who have been enrolled into the Ph.D. program for one academic year should take a qualifying examination in order to be advanced to Ph.D. candidacy. Qualifying examination may be attempted twice within a year.

5. Preliminary evaluation (Public Hearing)

The purpose of preliminary evaluation is to make judgment about whether the candidate is eligible to apply for the degree before examination process starts. Firstly, the candidate must have a session with examiners, who are elected by the Department Committee, to explain the dissertation and to obtain their agreement about Public Hearing. Then, on condition that the Faculty Committee approves Public Hearing based on the examiners' agreement, Public Hearing may be held.

【Quality of dissertation】

Students must be capable of conducting creative and innovative research activities commensurate with independent research/education at universities/research institutes or advanced professional institutions at government agencies/international organizations. Also, Ph.D. dissertations must exhibit problem-solving skills and policy recommendation capabilities of a student.

Dissertations must satisfy the following criteria;

- (1) Originality of research;
- (2) Academic significance of research theme;
- (3) Logically balanced and well-organized structure;
- (4) Comprehensive literature review;
- (5) Overview of theoretical studies and empirical analysis;
- (6) Integrity of discussion and consistency of main arguments;
- (7) Compliance with technical requirements

*Notice: The detail schedule shall be confirmed to Graduate School Office.

- (2) Submission office: Graduate School Office

【Examination process】

Permission from supervisor

Candidates who are scheduled to apply for a doctoral degree must fulfill the degree requirements and obtain permission to submit the dissertations from their supervisors.

Acceptance of dissertation

The executive board of the Graduate School of Global Governance decides if the submitted dissertation fulfills all the necessary requirements. If the executive board finds it is qualified, the permission of submission will be granted by the Faculty Committee with the recommendation from the supervisor.

Oral defense to the Examining Committee

The Faculty Committee will nominate one chief examiner and at least two examiners for the dissertation that has been submitted. The examining members will evaluate an oral defense. After the examination, the examining members will discuss the result and submit an examination report to the Faculty Committee. The total duration of the examination term is approximately three months.

Final evaluation

The Faculty Committee determines the final result by vote based on the examination report submitted by the Examining Committee. Those who pass the Faculty Committee and receive approval from the Graduate School Committee will have a doctoral degree conferred.

【Duties of faculty members related to evaluation】

Examination members and their duties

Examination members will be comprised of at least two examiners engaged in the area close to the dissertation theme (if necessary, faculty members of other institutions may be included with the approval of the Faculty Committee) other than the academic supervisor, and will make every endeavor to examine the dissertation upon a fair and objective basis.

【Release of doctoral dissertation】

Release of examination abstract report

The abstract of dissertation and examination results will be made available on the Internet once the Doctoral degree is conferred.

Release of Doctoral dissertation

The dissertation will be disseminated based on the Meiji University degree regulation article No. 22.

<Meiji University degree regulation article No. 22>

1. Those who have been conferred a doctoral degree from Meiji University must release the whole text of dissertation within a year from the conferred date. However, those who have released the content before receiving a degree will not be included.
2. Other than above, those who have unavoidable reasons may release only the dissertation abstract other than the whole text. In this case, the university may provide access to the whole text upon request.
3. Release based on Clause 2 will be carried out through internet use.

- “Unavoidable reasons” means special reasons that can be judged as unavoidable by the university.
(Example)
 - a. When the dissertation cannot be released through internet due to the reason of including stereoscopic expressions.
 - b. When the dissertation cannot be released through internet over a year from the conferred date due to copyright protections and privacy protections.
 - c. When the degree holder receives disadvantage by releasing the dissertation text more than a year from the conferred date due to publication matters and patent matters.

The dissertation must be released on the internet when unavoidable reasons have been solved.

- Students must dissolve copyright matters regarding the internet release of dissertation by the time of their submission.
<Example>
 - Receive approval from the publishing company by whom the dissertation has already been published.
 - Receive approval from the copyright holder when quoting illustrations/pictures.
 * If the dissertation relates to patent applications, the application should be made before submitting the dissertation. If you are unaware of the necessary procedures, consult with the Research Promotion and Intellectual Property Office.

Dissemination through Meiji University and National Diet Library

- The dissertation abstract and text will be released from Meiji University Academic Repository.
- The dissertation abstract and data released for Meiji University Academic Repository will be also used at the National Diet Library.
