▶ The personal information submitted for admission or enrollment procedures will be used only for admission purposes such as the screening, admission decision, enrollment procedure and other related matters. Meiji University may outsource part of the handling operations to an external agency. So your personal information may be provided to the agency. In addition, anonymous statistical information will be only used for surveys for admission procedure and educational improvement at Meiji University.

▶ Due to the necessity of student registration and statistical processing after admission, Meiji University will minimize the acquisition of gender information to the extent necessary and handle it carefully within a limited scope.

▶ If successful applicants who had applied before completing their degrees failed to fulfill their degrees afterward, their enrollment will not be permitted.

Human Resource Development and Other Educational and Research Objectives

[Graduate School of Global Governance]

Global challenges---such as poverty reduction, sustainable development, human rights protection, and democratic governance---require highly sophisticated professionals with high-level of academic knowledge. The doctoral course at the Graduate School of Global Governance was established for accommodating such growing demands. They must be able to conduct in-depth analysis and find the right solutions to global issues. The school nurtures students' knowledge and ability for succeeding as professional scholars in the academic sector, high-ranking policy-makers in the government sector, and experts at international and non-governmental organizations.

[Global Governance Program]

The school offers "Public Policy", "International Development Policy", and "Community Management" programs. By completing the doctoral program, the students will have sufficient skills for conducting research on global environmental issues, poverty reduction, human rights, democratic states, community revitalization and crisis management.

Admission Policy

The doctoral program at the Graduate School of Global Governance aims at producing researchers who succeed internationally as well as outstanding professionals at government agencies, international organizations, and NGOs at both international and local levels. Toward these goals, the school welcomes applicants with the following backgrounds and potentials:

1. Professional experience and knowledge in one of the following three areas: public policy, international development policy, and community management. Motivation and enthusiasm in developing the knowledge and skills for becoming a pioneering professional or scholar.
2. Readiness to tackle global issues and willingness to contribute to the development of global society through academic research.

We conduct a general entrance examination to screen applicants based on Admission Policy.

Furthermore, applicants are required to satisfy the following criteria, including the knowledge in specialized fields:

1. Professional experience and knowledge in one of the following three areas: public policy, international development policy, and community management. The ability of undertaking a research in his/her specializing field.
2. A broad perspective and the ability to apply analytical methods in order to be able to work on advanced academic researches and ever-globalizing societies.
3. Good command of English for undertaking an advanced research project.

Curriculum Policy

The doctoral program at the Graduate School of Global Governance contributes to the development of academic disciplines on global issues. The school stresses the “governance” perspectives, such as the question about the role of government, business, and civil society in solving public problems. Toward the goal, we provide the following three programs:

1. Public Policy Program: The program is designed to cover the area of public policy by identifying issues in formulating, implementing and evaluating policies.
2. International Development Policy Program: Drawing on the studies on international development and environment, the program is designed for nurturing a better understanding of global issues such as sustainable development and poverty from a variety of perspectives on social systems.
3. Community Management Program: The program examines global issues with a close look at actual local problems and provides courses on processes for policy-making, implementation, and evaluation for resolving them.

In each program, students can develop the knowledge and skills necessary for becoming an internationally competent professional or scholar through academic trainings and international research projects guided by internationally experienced acclaimed supervisors.

Diploma Policy

At the Graduate School of Global Governance, Meiji University, those who succeed in fulfilling the requirements stipulated by the school and demonstrating the following characteristics and abilities in coursework and their dissertation will be awarded a Doctoral Degree (Ph.D. in Global Governance):

1. Ability of pursuing innovative and creative research and education independently at a university or research institute as a scholar or an educator.
2. Ability of performing highly-professional activities at government agencies, international organizations, and NGOs.
3. Ability of conducting research on strategies for public policy challenges--such as resolving global environmental issues, narrowing the gap between rich and poor, securing human rights, and promoting democracy—with a perspective on global public policy.

(1) Screening fee: JPY 35,000 (nontaxable)

(2) Payment deadline: Friday, May 8, 2026 (Japan Standard Time).

* Note that payment from overseas must arrive at Meiji University by the deadline. Late payment after the deadline is invalid.

* The screening fee is not refundable under any circumstances.

* The screening fee cannot be accepted in case that you don't follow the following designated payment procedures.

(3) Choose one of the following payment methods.

◆ Paying by credit card/China Pay Service ※Available from Wednesday, April 1, 2026

(1) Refer to the "Payment guideline (Credit Card/China Pay Service)". Visa, Mastercard, JCB, American Express, or Union Pay (銀聯) is acceptable.

*Handling fees will be charged when making the payment.

*Payment can be made only during a specified period.

*For any inquiries regarding the payment procedure, please check the "E-Payment Service" website (<https://e-shiharai.net/ecard/>)

(2) Upon completion of payment, go to the "Confirmation of Completed Payment" (申込内容照会) page. Enter your application number and your birthdate and year, and print out a "Result" page (収納証明書).

(3) Submit the "Result" page and Form B along with the other application documents to the Graduate School Office.

(4) Submission of Forms C and D is not necessary. Print the "Confirmation of Completed Payment" (申込内容照会) page as it is the only documentation of payment and no receipt will be issued by Meiji University.

◆ Paying by Overseas Remittance from Outside of Japan

(1) Check the notes below before taking the remittance procedure.

*Commission fees of both your local bank and Meiji University's bank will be charged for the overseas remittance, and the payer is responsible for all such fees. Check the total amount of fees and pay at your local bank.

In addition to the Screening Fee, applicants must also pay the following fees:

1. Bank charges for remittance services at your local bank
2. Bank charges for remittance services at Meiji University's bank
3. Any additional fees (if any; please check with your bank.)

*The screening fee will not be refunded once it is paid.

*The screening fee must arrive at the University's bank account by the payment deadline. It may take a long time for remittance, and applicants are therefore strongly advised to make the remittance in advance with sufficient time allowance. Payment can be accepted before the application period starts.

*If there is any shortfall in the fees arriving in the University's bank account, your application will be regarded as a withdrawal and no fees will be refunded. Also, you will be responsible for any issues occurring during the remittance that may cause failure of the payment, and the fees will not be refunded.

(2) Make the remittance referring the below information:

Type of Remittance	Telegraphic Transfer

(4) After remitting the screening fee, please submit the "Application for Remittance (外国送金依頼書)" issued by the financial institution as proof of the remittance and Form B, C and D along with other application documents.

◆ Paying through a bank in Japan (Except Japan Post Bank/Yu-cho Bank/ゆうちょ銀行)

(1) Fill out the prescribed payment form (Form B, C and D). The graduate school code is "3111"

(2) Pay the fee by telegraphic transfer at a bank counter.

*Only cash payment is accepted. Checks, securities, and payment through an ATM are not acceptable.

*No transfer commission fees are charged if the payment is made at the head office or a branch of the designated bank listed on the prescribed payment form.

*Applicants can pay the screening fee before the application period starts.

(3) Upon completion of payment, please make sure that the financial institution placed a receipt stamp on Forms B and C. No receipt stamp means that the payment has not been completed.

(4) Detach Form B and submit Form B with other application documents to the Graduate School Office.

(5) Submission of Forms C and D is not necessary. The stamp of the financial institution is the University's receipt and should be kept by the applicant safely since any other receipt will not be issued by Meiji University.

◆ Paying through Convenience stores in Japan ※Available from Wednesday, April 1, 2026

- (1) Refer to the “Payment guideline (Convenience stores in Japan)” (*Japanese only.)
Payment can be made through Lawson, 7-ELEVEN, Family Mart, MINI STOP.
*Commission fees will be charged when making a payment at these locations.

- (2) Upon completion of payment, obtain a receipt certifying your payment (収納証明書) and submit Form B with other application documents to the Graduate School Office.
- (3) Submission of Forms C and D is not necessary. A receipt issued by the convenience store is considered as the University’s receipt. The receipt should be safely kept by the applicant since any other receipt will not be issued by Meiji University.

6. Announcement of Admission Decision

The announcement of the admission decision: Wednesday, July 22, 2026.

- (1) The announcement will be made through the website of the Graduate School of Global Governance (<https://www.meiji.ac.jp/cip/english/graduate/gsgg/index.html>).
- (2) The notification of acceptance will be sent to each successful applicant by E-mail and trackable courier services. The mailing address on the application documents will be used. If your mailing address changes after you apply, contact the Graduate School Office immediately. We do not accept any inquiries regarding the results.

7. Enrollment Procedure

Enrollment registration deadline: Tuesday, August 18, 2026

- (1) Sending enrollment documents
 - The notification of acceptance and enrollment documents will be sent to each successful applicant soon after the announcement of the admission decision.
 - If you have been accepted but have not received enrollment documents, contact the Graduate School Office immediately.
- (2) Enrollment procedure
 - For further details regarding the enrollment procedure, please follow “Enrollment Registration Guidelines” which is included with the notification of acceptance.
 - All enrollment procedures must be completed during the period designated by the university. We never accept procedures after the enrollment period due to non-delivery or late delivery of enrollment documents.
 - The deadline for the enrollment procedure is shortly after the notification date and some required documents need to take several weeks to issue. Prepare the following items in order to submit them within the enrollment procedure period.
 - (i) Academic Fees and Miscellaneous Fees (refer to page 19)
 - (ii) Certificate of Graduation/Degree from all universities attended

*Only for those who submitted a certificate of expected graduation and degree or academic transcript as part of your application documentation.

(iii) Residence Certificate

(iv) Guarantor's Residence Certificate *Only for international students

The residence certificate should meet the following conditions.

- To be issued within three months of the enrollment procedure.
- To include the status and the expiration date of residence.

Those residing outside Japan are required to register their residence immediately upon entering Japan. Once the residence certificate is received, it is to be submitted as part of the enrollment procedure.

(3) Notes

- Submitted documents will not be returned under any circumstances.
- Acceptance to the university may be revoked if any falsified information is found in the submitted documents.
- All international students are required to check the orientation materials from the International Student Office scheduled to be updated in August 2026. Details will be sent together with the notification of acceptance and enrollment documents.

8. Additional Information

< Guarantor >

- Successful applicants are required to nominate a guarantor for their enrollment at Meiji University.
- Please note that the following is the order of priority for guarantors*:
 - (i) Parents residing in Japan
 - (ii) Relatives residing in Japan who are financially independent
 - (iii) Acquaintance residing in Japan who are financially independent and are able to guide and support the applicant.
- *An individual residing in Japan with a "Student" visa is not eligible to become a guarantor.
- Guarantors are required to submit "Written Agreement and Notification of Guarantor Consent for the Use of Personal Information", and Residence Certificate during the enrollment process.

< Obtaining a "Student" Visa >

For applicants with status of residence in Japan

The Graduate School Office will issue a "Letter of Acceptance (入学許可証 Nyugakukyokasho)" during the enrollment procedure, so please use this document to extend or change your visa.

Details of the required documents will be guided in the materials sent with enrollment documents.

"Student" visa holders

If you currently hold a "Student" visa, you may apply to extend your status of residence up to three months before your current visa expires.

[Note] If you stay in Japan even one day beyond your period of stay, you will be deported or imposed criminal penalties.

Non - “Student” visa holders

If you are staying in Japan on a visa other than a “Student”, you may apply for a change of status of residence to “Student”, should you wish to do so.

[Note 1] University Responsibility: Meiji University will not be responsible for managing your status of residence of students who hold a visa other than a “Student”.

[Note 2] Scholarship Eligibility: Please note that most scholarships designated for international students require applicants to hold a “Student” visa as a prerequisite.

For applicants without status of residence in Japan

In order to reside in Japan as a Meiji University student, you will generally need to apply for a “Student” visa. A Certificate of Eligibility (COE), issued by the Tokyo Regional Immigration Services Bureau, is required to facilitate the processing of your visa application. Meiji University can apply for a COE on behalf of students abroad at the Tokyo Regional Immigration Services Bureau (this is a proxy application). Application documents for a COE will be guided in the materials sent with enrollment documents.

[Note 1] Screenings of COE applications are conducted by the Ministry of Justice. In case the application is denied or the issuance is delayed, the University assumes no responsibility.

[Note 2] Since it usually takes 2 to 3 months to process, successful applicants should prepare and submit the necessary documents as soon as you receive your admission result. There is a possibility that you may not be able to obtain a visa before the semester starts.
