

Meiji University Graduate School of Global Governance Special Lecture Series

Focus and Goal:

The aim of this lectures are for participants to acquire the basics skills of academic writing and presentation. I am planning to give a lecture based on my experience as a political scientist. In the final week, participants will paraphrase arguments in a paper that they refer to and make a presentation regarding their research topic.

(Lecture 1) Academic Writing and Its Ethics:

We learn the toolkit and basic principles of academic writing.

(Lecture 2) Academic Presentation:

We learn the toolkit and basic principles of academic presentation.

Note: Assignments for Lecture 3

(Lecture 3) Participant's paraphrase and presentation

Schedule:

Lecture 1 Dec. 2 (Mon) 13:30~15:10

Lecture 2 Dec. 2 (Mon) 15:20~17:00

Lecture 3 Dec. 9 (Mon) 13:30~15:10

*In principle, it is necessary to attend all lectures.

Note:

All lectures are conducted in English, via Zoom.

Registration:

Read the QR code or Click HERE

Due Date : November 24th

Lecturer Prof. KAMAHARA Yuta

Yuta KAMAHARA, PhD in Law (Keio University, 2013), Associate Professor, Yokohama National University. My research interests include (a) Comparative Politics, (b) International Relations, and (c) Political Methodology.

More specifically, I am interested in "measuring democracy and its components" and the "causes and consequences of civil war." My works have appeared in Journal of Peace Research, Electoral Studies, Public Choice, and Mathematical Social Sciences. More details can be found at <https://sites.google.com/site/yutakamaharapolisci/>

