

With reference to events using university facilities such as lectures, workshops, and social gatherings, please see below.

1. Meiji University, will not permit outside organizations and institutions to use any campus facilities up to the end of March.
2. For faculty members, we will notify you of important notes on events organized by the university through the Oh-o! Meiji system.