* As a general rule, online classes will continue during the Spring Semester S1 and S2 periods.

(However, if our activity restriction guidelines for preventing the spread of infection are lowered to Level 2 or lower, face-to-face classes may be started in some classes.)

* The Spring Semester Special make-up class Period will be set as the period to be allocated to the special make-up class, such as experiment and practical training subjects, for which it is difficult to respond in online classes. The subjects to be covered will be announced from each faculty and graduate school.

*Enrollment in first and second half intensive course classes in each semester are limited to schools that introduce classes which can be completed in seven weeks as part of their classes.

*Class suspension measures during University Festival Week will apply across all campuses. However, classes may be held during University Festival Week in the Graduate School and Professional Graduate School.
