

To all students and faculty members

Class Cancellations during the University Festival Week 2023

During the University Festival Week, which includes “Meidaisai” and “Ikumeisai”, classes will be cancelled at all campuses (Surugadai, Izumi, Ikuta and Nakano) as set out below. However, some classes may be held at Graduate Schools and Professional Graduate Schools during this week. Please refer to the following table.

Class Schedule for the University Festival Week

*This applies to all campuses.

Date	Day	Festival	Situation for Classes
			Undergraduate schools Graduate Schools	Professional Graduate Schools Graduate Schools Intensive Classes (Graduate School of Business Administration)
November 1	Wednesday	—	University Foundation Memorial Holiday	Governance, Global Business: Classes held as usual (Professional Accountancy, Law School: No classes)
November 2	Thursday	—	No Classes	Governance: Intensive classes only Global Business, Professional Accountancy: Classes held as usual (Law School: No classes)
November 3	Friday	“Meidaisai” “Ikumeisai”	National Holiday	National Holiday
November 4	Saturday	“Meidaisai” “Ikumeisai”	No Classes	All Professional Graduate Schools: Classes held as usual Business Administration: Intensive classes only
November 5	Sunday	“Meidaisai” “Ikumeisai”	Sunday	Governance: Intensive classes only (Other Professional Graduate Schools are closed) Business Administration: Intensive classes only
November 6	Monday	—	No Classes	All Professional Graduate Schools: Classes held as usual
November 7	Tuesday	—	No Classes	All Professional Graduate Schools: Classes held as usual Business Administration: Intensive classes only

※Please follow instructions from your faculty if your classes are to be held during the University Festival Week.

Director, Academic Affairs Office