(REFERENCE TRANSLATION)

※When you visit a medical institution, please bring the university form (in Japanese).

Certificate of the Incidence and Cure of "Designated Infectious Disease"
(that is "Infectious Disease Designated by the Japanese School Health and Safety Act")

Student ID No.		School	(Graduate) School of	Grade
Full Name		Phone No. (Cell Phone)	– –

---

1. For cases of Influenza or COVID-19

☐ I certify that the above-mentioned student was infected as follows.

Diagnosis: ☐Influenza A virus ☐Influenza B virus ☐COVID-19

Diagnosed: 202Y/ MM/ DD

The Minimum Duration of Sick Leave: from 202Y/ MM/ DD to 202Y/ MM/ DD

The Earliest Date of Returning to School: 202Y/ MM/ DD

*Influenza A/ B virus: Five days after the onset of the symptoms, and two days after being fever-free.

*COVID-19: Five days after the onset of the symptoms, and one day after the symptoms have improved.

---

2. For other infectious diseases as follows

☐ I certify that the above-mentioned student was infected by the following infectious disease and has now been cured with no possibility of further infection.

	Diagnosis	Recommended Duration of Sick Leave
☐	Measles	Three days after being fever-free.
☐	Rubella	Until the rash subsides.
☐	Varicella	Until all the rash forms scabs.
☐	Mumps	Five days after the onset of parotid, submandibular, or sublingual mumps and until the physical condition gets better.
☐	Whooping Cough	Until the cough has subsided, or after five days of appropriate treatment with antibiotics.
☐	Pharyngoconjunctival Fever	Two days after the major symptoms disappear.
☐	Tuberculosis	Until the doctor confirms that there is no possibility of infection.
☐	Others (designated by the Japanese School Health and Safety Act)	Type one: Until cured. Type three: Until the doctor confirms that there is no possibility of further infection.

Diagnosed: 202Y/ MM/ DD

The Minimum Duration of Sick Leave: from 202Y/ MM/ DD to 202Y/ MM/ DD

The Earliest Date of Returning to School: 202Y/ MM/ DD