

To: All students and faculty members

From: General Manager, Educational Affairs Division

Class Cancellations during the University Festival Week 2025

During the University Festival Week, which includes “Meidaisai” and “Ikumeisai”, classes will be cancelled at all campuses (Surugadai, Izumi, Ikuta and Nakano) as shown below. However, some classes may still be held at Graduate Schools and Professional Graduate Schools during the Festival week. Please refer to the following table.

Class Schedule for the University Festival Week

*This applies to all campuses.

Date	Day	Festival	Arrangements for Classes
			Undergraduate schools Graduate Schools	Professional Graduate Schools
October 29	Wednesday	—	No Classes	All Professional Graduate Schools: Classes will be held as usual.
October 30	Thursday	—	No Classes	All Professional Graduate Schools: Classes will be held as usual.
October 31	Friday	—	No Classes	Governance, Global Business, Professional Accountancy: Classes will be held as usual.
November 1	Saturday	“Meidaisai” “Ikumeisai”	University Foundation Memorial Holiday	Governance, Global Business: Classes will be held as usual.
November 2	Sunday	“Meidaisai” “Ikumeisai”	Sunday	Governance Studies: Only intensive classes will be held.
November 3	Monday	“Meidaisai” “Ikumeisai”	Culture Day
November 4	Tuesday	—	No Classes	Governance, Global Business, Professional Accountancy: Classes will be held as usual. Juris Doctor Course: Only make-up classes only will be held.

Note: Depending on the circumstances of individual courses, certain classes may be held during the University Festival week. In such cases, students are required to follow the instructions provided by the respective lecturer.

Director, Academic Affairs Office