

Time	Club		Theme of Presentation	Speaker
09:30 - 09:40		1	Introduction of Research activities in Meiji University	Masahiro Yamamoto Vice President (Research), Professor School of Commerce
09:40 - 09:55	Eco Campus	2	Meiji's recent examples toward Eco-Campus	Tomoaki Tanaka, Professor, School of Science and Technology
		3	Trends of Energy Management in Japan and Research Activities in Meiji University	Shigeru Tamura Professor, School of Interdisciplinary Mathematical Sciences
09:55 - 10:10	Transport	4	Electric Power and Energy Issues in Metropolitan Transportation Systems Transit Oriented Development and the Production of Space (Made by Prof. Hideto Fujii, School of Commerce)	Teruhisa Kumano, Professor, School of Science and Technology
		5	Intelligent Transport Systems using Radio Techniques	Kohei Ono, Senior Assistant Professor, School of Interdisciplinary Mathematical Sciences
10:10 - 10:25	Health	6	Dance video game for home-based rehabilitation	Yumie Ono Associate Professor School of Science and Technology
		7	Contribution of Sports Science to Health Issues in World Cities: Importance of Exercise Physiology	Masashi Ichinose Associate Professor School of Business Administration
10:25-10:30	Business	8	International Cities and the business: In terms of international financial centers	Etsuko Katsu Vice President (International), Professor School of Political Science and Economics
10:30- 10:50	Global Culture	9	Teaching History in English to Japanese and international students	Michelin Franck Associate Professor Organization for International Collaboration
		10	Unique constructions of Japanese Buddhist Architecture in the Aizu region	Evgeny Pyskin Associate Professor, Deputy Director (International Programs), Institute of Computing and Control St.Petersburg State Polytechnical University
10:50 - 11:00	Q & A Session			