- Are there any programs/courses that are not open to exchange students from Meiji University?

Spots in our international graduate programmes are limited, admission to these programmes depends on available spots. Exchange students cannot be enrolled in teacher training, pedagogy, and social sciences classes are available.

- Are students allowed to take classes outside of their major at Meiji University?

Yes.

- Do exchange students belong to a specific school/department at your institution?

Exchange students belong to a specific school/department but they are allowed to cross-register (take classes from different schools/departments).

- Minimum and Maximum numbers of credits per semester for exchange students.

15 - 30 ECTS

The number of credits awarded for classes may vary by department and school.

- Are there any other requirements that exchange students should be aware of?

- Do you offer accommodation for exchange students?

※滞在先の状況は今後変わる可能性があります。また、学生用住居が確保されている場合も、指定期日までの申し込み・支払いの完了等の条件が設定されています。/Accommodation Situation may change. Even if the student accommodation is guaranteed, there are conditions such as completing the application and payment before the designated date etc.

Student accommodation information will be provided but not guaranteed. Students need to apply for accommodation in student residences immediately after receiving the acceptance letter.

-How much should exchange students expect to pay for accommodation and food per month?

-Are there other mandatory fees that students need to pay?

Students need to pay a semester fee of approx. 260 EUR. The semester fee includes semester ticket - public transportation in city, region and state of North Rhine - Westphalia - and social contributions.

-All Meiji students will be enrolled in a travel and health insurance designated by Meiji University. Do they need to purchase any additional insurance designated by your institution or country on top of Meiji insurance? If yes, how much would it cost?

Not all international (travel) insurances are considered sufficient for enrolment. Students should prepare to get an additional German health insurance coverage upon enrolment - approx 90 EUR/months.
