

How to get a “Student” Visa

In order to obtain a “Student” visa, you need to apply for a “Certificate of Eligibility (COE)”. Meiji University can apply for a COE on behalf of students abroad at the Tokyo Regional Immigration Services Bureau (this is a proxy application). You need to apply for a “Student” visa at the Japanese embassy or consulate in your home country using the COE sent by e-mail.

The examination for COE application takes around 2 to 3 months, so please prepare required documents as soon as you decide to enroll in Meiji University.

(Sample e-mail)

Title: [Meiji University] Request for COE application

To whom may it concern,

This is 【★Enter Your Name】 , who is a new privately financed student at Meiji University in April, 2026.

As I would like to kindly request for your COE application support for international students, please inform me of the specific procedures and application materials by replying to me at 【★Enter Your E-mail address】 .

Thank you for your support in advance.

Best regards,

After you send an e-mail, you will receive instructions directly from the affiliated office.
Please follow their guidance carefully and submit the required documents to them.

<Notes>

1. The examination for the COE application is conducted by the Immigration Services Bureau. In case the issuance of COE is delayed or denied, Meiji University shall not assume any responsibility.
2. If your application lacks any of the documents, we cannot apply for a COE on behalf of you. Please make sure that there are no lacking documents before submission.
3. The COE is valid for 3 months from the date of issue. Please apply for a "Student" visa at a Japanese Embassy or Consulate in your home country immediately once you receive the COE.
4. In case you enter Japan with "Temporary Visitor" visa, the Immigration Bureau does not accept the application for change of status of residence to "Student", in general. When there are unavoidable reasons, please contact the International Student Office (coe@meiji.ac.jp) in advance.
