

Application for Monbukagakusho Honors Scholarship Program FAQ

Type	Document	Question	Answer
Eligibility	Application Guideline	I still haven't obtained resident status "student" but can I apply? (e.g. Haven't obtained CoE, resident status is "short-term stay" etc.)	If you are in the process of obtaining "Student" status, you can apply. Please submit the Residence Card you currently have and documentary evidence (e.g., e-mail) that shows that your application for "Student" is in process.
Eligibility	Application Guideline	Can I apply with a resident status other than "Student"?	No, you cannot. You will need to have "Student" status to apply. However, if you are in the process of changing your status to "Student," you are eligible.
Eligibility	Application Guideline	I have repeated a year due to a leave of absence, but can I apply?	Students who repeat a year due to a leave of absence in the previous academic year may be eligible. Please contact the International Student Office by email in advance.
Eligibility	Application Guideline	I delayed the payment of my school expenses, but can I apply?	Yes, you can. Delaying the payment will not affect the screening.
Eligibility	Application Guideline	Can I receive both Meiji University Scholarship for Privately Financed International Students and this scholarship?	No, you cannot receive both. You can still apply for this scholarship even though you already applied for Meiji University Scholarship for Privately Financed International Students. However, if you are selected for Monbukagakusho Honors Scholarship recipients, you will need to choose which scholarship to receive.
Eligibility	Application Guideline	Can I receive both the scholarship offered by external foundations and this scholarship?	Several external foundation restrict you from receiving the Monbukagakusho Honors Scholarship. In such cases, you cannot receive both. Please check the application guidelines of external foundations to see if you can receive both of the scholarships or not.
