Railroad Research Club

Campus

☐ Surugadai ☒ Izumi ☒ Ikuta ☐ Nakano

The Number of Members

70

Activities

The railroad research club is a place, where people who have interest in mainly railroad, but also other transportation and traffic, gather to have fun sharing one's interest with each other, and together we enjoy model railroading, playing train simulators, and more. The most exciting event of all, is the train travels we go together three times a year. We go somewhere in the Kanto-Koshin region in spring and winter, and somewhere in Japan in the summer. (We went to Ibaraki, Akita last year.) We also publish "The Coupler", our doujinshi about railroad every year.

Activity Place

Classroom of either Izumi campus or Ikuta campus.

Schedule

Twice a month, usually on a Saturday.

Free Space

If you have interest in Japanese trains or foreign trains, like taking photo of trains or going on train travels, like researching about rolling stocks or railroad lines, or have interest in anything else railroad related, as long as you have love and passion for railroad, you are highly welcome! If you are a railroad fan, the railroad research club is the best place to enjoy your university years, here at Meiji University.

Campus

☒ Surugadai ☒ Izumi ☐ Ikuta ☐ Nakano

The Number of Members

21~50

Activities

Our club is an LGBTQ+-friendly community that supports a diverse environment at Meiji University. As offline events, we usually have lunch gatherings and karaoke events. We went to Tokyo Disney Sea and took a lodging trip in the previous semester. As online events, we regularly have Zoom casual chatting and LGBTQ+ study meetings in which we discuss LGBTQ+-related issues.

Activity Place

We do not have a particular activity place.

Schedule

We do not have a fixed schedule. We usually have some kinds of events 2 or 3 times a month.

Free Space

We are welcoming everyone including Ally, and students who are not freshmen. We also welcome those who commute to the Nakano campus or Ikuta campus. Our meetings are not always held on the Surugadai or Izumi campus. It is not mandatory to attend the events so feel free to join us!

Japanese Tea Ceremony and Flower Arrangement Club

Campus

☐ Surugadai ☒ Izumi ☒ Ikuta ☒ Nakano

The Number of Members

57

Activities

We practice Japanese tea ceremony and flower arrangement. We have 3 divisions: Izumi tea, Ikuta tea, and flower arrangement.

All divisions work together at tea parties and flower exhibitions.

Schedule and Activity Place

Izumi Tea Division: Saturday 10:30-17:00 @the temple next to Izumi Campus

Ikuta Tea Division: Friday 13:30-18:50 @Ikuta Campus

Flower Arrangement Division: Monday 17:30-19:00 @Izumi Campus

*Operation of tea parties and flower exhibitions, and visits to other universities' tea parties(optional) may be scheduled on weekends.

Free Space

Beginners are welcome. Let's enjoy learning Japanese traditional culture.

It is very difficult to study tea ceremony even for Japanese. To know or feel it, however, would give you a good chance to catch a hint of Japanese way of thinking.

Activities

We have fun playing badminton for beginners and experienced players alike. We also have many events such as sports tournaments and training camps so you will definitely make friends! 🍷

Activity Place

Surugadai Campus Gymnasium, Eifuku Gymnasium and other gymnasiums in Tokyo

Schedule

Irregular, 2 to 3 days a week on weekdays

Free Space

We are a close-knit circle with strong vertical and horizontal ties as we gather 1st to 4th year students from various faculties to practice and hold events! ❤️ Also, you can participate in practices at your own convenience, so you have a lot of freedom, and you can also join other clubs except for some badminton clubs! You can enjoy playing badminton in a friendly atmosphere 😊 You can join the club from any grade! Students from Nakano Campus and Ikuta Campus are also enrolled!
