To use without registering a credit card

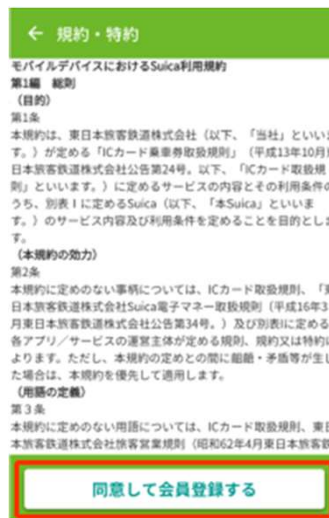

Suica/Pasmo is a convenient IC card that can be used to pay for purchases as a ticket or e-money.

Suica is recommended if you mainly use JR train, while Pasmo is recommended if you use the subway (Metro). Currently, sales of Suica/Pasmo cards other than commuter passes are temporarily suspended due to the global shortage of semiconductors. By downloading App., you can use it on your mobile phone as well.

For students, commuter passes can be purchased. A student ID card and School certificate issued by the university are required.
