

Guidelines for Taking Final Exams

1. Students should sit in alternate seats, leaving one seat vacant between you and your neighbor(s). In examination rooms where seating is prearranged, follow the instructions and sit in your designated seat.
2. Place your student ID, with the photo side up, on the desk within easy view of the proctor.
3. If you do not have your student ID with you, report to the faculty office to obtain a one-day permit for taking exams.
4. Unless otherwise specified by your instructor, teaching/studying materials, such as textbooks, reference books, notebooks, etc. are not permitted.
5. You must keep all personal belongings in your bag except for those permitted for the test such as writing tools, your student ID, watch/clock without communication function. Drinks are not permitted and must be stored in your bag. You must place your bag on a seat next to yours or at your feet. You will be held liable for cheating if (a) prohibited item(s) is/(are) found outside your bag.
6. Writing tools must be taken out of your pen case, which must be stored in your bag during the examination.
7. You must not use any type of electronic device such as cell phones, electronic dictionaries, or wrist watch with communication function. However, electronic calculators are permitted in certain examinations as indicated by the instructor.
8. You must not wear a hat, a cap or any other head covering during the examination, unless prior permission is obtained for a special reason.
9. You will not be allowed to enter the examination room if you are more than 20 minutes late for the exam. You can finish your test taking and leave the examination room after 30 minutes from the beginning of the examination, but not during the last 10 minutes of the examination.
10. You must enter your faculty name, department name, year, class number and student number on the answer sheet. Answer sheets without these entries will be treated invalid. Make sure you know your year, class number and student number by checking your commutation certificate, which is pasted on the backside of your student ID.
11. You must refrain from talking with any students in the examination room. Also, you must not cheat.
12. Please note that those who caught cheating in an examination will be punished with disciplinary measures, such as suspension or removal from the university in accordance with the university regulations.
13. Once you have completed the exam, you must submit your answer sheet in person.
14. You must follow the instructions of the proctor in the examination room at all times.
