

Meiji University Activity Restriction Guideline

In the Meiji University Activity Restriction Guideline, the spread of new-type coronavirus infection is divided into 6 stages from level 0 to 5, and defines the scope of each activity according to each level.

The Guideline and treatment are subject to change depending on future conditions. We will notify new information to you through HP, Oh-o! Meiji etc. ☒

*The current Level is 2 (Yellow).

As of July 1, 2020

Level	Status	Classes and Educational Activities	Research activity	Student's entry into campus	Extracurricular activities		Counter service(Office)	Facility lending	Meetings
					Athletic Association activities	Club activities
Level 0 (BLUE)	Normal	Normal	Normal	Normal	Normal	Normal	Normal	Normal	Normal
Level 1 (Green)	No request for self-restraint has been made, but caution against infection is necessary.	Classes are conducted with attention paid to preventing the spread of infection. Active use of online classes.	The research activity as usual is accepted, while the infection extension prevention is minded.	The entry is accepted, while the infection extension prevention is minded.	The activity is accepted, while the infection extension prevention is minded.	The activity is accepted, while the infection extension prevention is minded.	Counter service(Office) is opened with attention paid to preventing the spread of infection. Proactive use of e-mail and telephone inquiries is needed.	Lending for visitors is not available. Permission for lending to faculty members is allowed with a limited number of people.	Face-to-face meetings are held with attention paid to preventing the spread of infection.
Level 2 (Yellow)	A situation where a request for self-restraint has been made regarding events and events with a large number of people.	Classes are conducted online in principle. Some face-to-face classes with a limited number of students are held.	In principle, participation and sponsoring research meetings of academic societies is prohibited. Research activity in the university is accepted considering the research environment.	In principle, students should refrain from entering the campus. Only some facilities approved by the university are available.	Activities are prohibited in principle. Only certain activities approved by the university are allowed.	Totally banned	In principle, make inquiries by e-mail or phone only. Consultation and submission of documents at the office can only be made with prior permission from the office.	Lending for visitors is not available. Permission for lending to faculty members is allowed with a limited number of people.	Face-to-face meetings are held with attention paid to preventing the spread of infection. Active use of online or written meetings is needed.
Level 3 (Orange)	A state of emergency has not been declared, but a request has been made to refrain from going out.	Online classes only.	In principle, business trips should be canceled. Prohibition of participation and sponsoring research meetings of academic societies, etc. As a general rule, research is conducted at home, and entry into campus is possible only when necessary for preparation and continuation of education and research.	In principle, students should refrain from entering the campus. Only some facilities approved by the university are available.	Activities are prohibited in principle. Only certain activities approved by the university are allowed.	Totally banned	In principle, make inquiries by e-mail or phone only. Consultation and submission of documents at the office can only be made with prior permission from the office.	nonlending	Conduct as much as possible in online or paper meetings.
Level 4 (Red)	A state of emergency has been declared	Online classes only.	In principle, business trips should be canceled. Prohibition of participation and sponsoring research meetings of academic societies, etc. As a general rule, research should be conducted at home, and entry into campus is possible only when it is indispensable for preparation and continuation of education and research.	Entry is prohibited in principle. When it is necessary to enter into the campus urgently, the permission by department or graduate school is needed in advance. (Leave as soon as possible.)	Totally banned	Totally banned	Closed. Only by e-mail or phone.	Nonlending	In principle, meetings (except emergency management meetings), shall be online or paper.
Level 5 (Black)	A serious emergency (Situation in which teachers and staff are unable to work due to the spread of infection, etc.)	Online classes only.	Only the minimum number of personnel necessary to maintain research assets is allowed.	Prohibition of entry of all students	Totally banned	Totally banned	Closed. Only by e-mail or phone.	Nonlending	Online or paper meetings only.

*The guidelines are subject to change in the future condition.