

Ikebana Workshop 🌸

We are excited to hold an Ikebana (Japanese flower arrangement) hands-on workshop for a cultural exchange between Japanese and international students at Nakano campus! We have invited professional Ikebana teachers for this special event. Ikebana is a traditional Japanese art that expresses the beauty of space by arranging fresh-cut flowers. Please immerse yourself in traditional Japanese culture and use this opportunity to meet other students.

* We will use recycled plastic bottles and origami paper to decorate.

The theme is Japanese New year ♪

1. Date: 4th Period, Tuesday, December 1st, 2015
Starts at 2:40pm
Ends at 4:10pm (Tentatively)
2. Place: Community Room at Nakano Campus (1F)
(In front of Nakano International Lounge)
3. Content: Ikebana workshop with hands-on experience
4. Instructors: Naohiro Kasuya, Headmaster Designate, and Professor Ryofuku Suzuki
from Ichiyo School of Ikebana
5. Audience: Meiji University students
(International and Japanese students)
6. Enrollment Capacity: First 10 people
(Registration required)
7. Bring: Student ID card
8. Fee: ¥500 for supplies (Please pay when you register)
9. Registration: International Collaboration at the Nakano campus office(3F)
Fill out an application form (available at the office) and turn it in with the fee.
10. Registration Period: From Wednesday, November 4th to Wednesday, November 25th, 2015
Weekdays from 9:00am to 6:00pm
We will close registration as the list reaches the capacity (10 people).
11. Collaboration with: Ichiyo School of Ikebana headquarter
12. Hosted by: International Student Center
Nakano Research and Educational Support Office (International Collaboration)
(Contact: 03-5343-8057)

Easy and fun!!