

University of London SOAS Radio Lecture Meeting

- An Asakusa International Studies Production -

We are honored to present two of the core people involved in the Web radio enterprise at the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS), Professor Keith Howard and Director Carlos Chirinos, who will speak at our gathering on September 19. The talks are presented as part of our efforts to promote co-operation between Tokyo-Edo Radio - an Asakusa International Studies project - and SOAS Radio.

Lecturers and topics

Professor Keith Howard: "Embedding Radio within a University: OpenAir/SOAS Radio"

Director Carlos Chirinos: "SOAS Radio: Social Enterprise, Student Experience and the challenges of reaching out to an international audience in the digital domain"

Interpreter: Hans Karlsson (Producer, Tokyo-Edo Radio)

Time:

September 19, 2012 (Wed.), 17:00 - 19:00

Place (Map here: <http://bit.ly/R8BUPJ>):

Meiji University, Surugadai Liberty Tower, Floor 14, Room 1144

Access: 5 min. walk from JR Ochanomizu St., or 6 min. walk from Marunouchi Line St.

More information: <http://bit.ly/PpBI3p>

About the lecturers

Professor Keith Howard, SOAS, was formerly Associate Dean at the University of Sydney. He was the founding director and licensee of SOAS Radio (as OpenAir Radio), and founded and managed the SOASIS CD and DVD series. He is editorial chair for the SOAS Musicology Series (Ashgate), and is the author or editor of 17 books and more than 150 published articles. He is a regular broadcaster for BBC, ITV, Sky, NBC and others.

Director Carlos Chirinos is founder, Director and Commissioning Editor of SOAS Radio. His work includes Radio in Africa, Communication for Development, and Music and Media industries. He has extensive experience working in radio production with students and staff at SOAS.

This event is sponsored by Toyota Foundation.

Inquiries:

Itoda Soichiro

Professor, Meiji University, School of Letters

itoda@kisc.meiji.ac.jp

Research Room Phone: 03-3296-2250