

2024 Academic Year School of Science and Technology Student Exchange Program

October, 2023

“Student Exchange Program” is a study abroad program held at the partner institutions of Meiji University with student exchange agreements. School of Science and Technology (SST) has its own partner institutions overseas, where only SST students can study in languages such as English, Chinese, German, French etc. To participate in this student exchange program, SST students are required to apply for the internal selection and to be nominated by SST to a partner university. Students need to read carefully the following information about how to apply for the internal selection, and also refer to “2024 Student Exchange Admission Details” for each partner institution’s requirements. The student exchange programs are NON-DEGREE, and SST students are required to return to Meiji University upon completion of the exchange program.

■GPA Requirement :

If the partner university you wish to apply has a GPA requirement, you need to meet the requirement. If the requirement is written as “preferred,” students can apply for internal selection with slightly lower GPA. However, priority is given to students who meet the requirement and final decision will be made by partner university. Recommendation from SST will not guarantee the acceptance to partner university. Also, you must meet GPA requirement both at the time of screening process within SST and at the time of application to the partner university.

■Language Proficiency :

Language proficiency certificate must be an ORIGINAL. Copies are NOT acceptable. If you do not have an original score of TOEFL-iBT at the time of application for internal selection, you can submit a copy of My Home Page instead. Be sure to submit an original score as soon as possible. Even if the partner university does not require any certificate of language test, students are still strongly advised to take the test.

12. FAQs

① Can I also apply for the "University-wide Exchange Program?"

Basically, yes. However, if you are selected as an exchange student to SST partner university, you are not allowed to withdraw from SST student exchange program.

② How can I find information of partner universities?

Not many institutions have paper-based catalogs, syllabi, or brochures. Please refer to the institution's website to see their latest information such as department list, course list, and other relevant information.

③ Will the credits be transferred?

Not all credits are automatically transferred. SST will decide how many credits can be transferred based on course contents and academic transcript of partner university and there is no guarantee. Please consult with your academic supervisor and office of SST for your study plan.

④ Class registration

Even if you pass internal selection, partner university may require students to attend language classes. Students are strongly advised to improve their language ability before departure.

⑤ Which department / major will I belong to?

If SST has an agreement with a specific department of partner university, you will belong to the department. If the agreement is university-wide, there are some cases that you do not belong to any department.

⑥ Can I withdraw from the program after being accepted?

You are not allowed to withdraw from the Student Exchange Program for unjustifiable reason(s) once you are chosen as a candidate. Any concerns should be considered and be settled before applying for the internal selection.

⑦ Will I officially accepted if I pass the internal screening?

Purpose of internal selection is to decide a candidate for student exchange program. Therefore, partner university makes a final decision whether to accept exchange students or not and recommendation from SST does not guarantee acceptance. Acceptance letter will usually be sent before 2 or 3 months before departure.

⑧ Duration of Study, Degree

Maximum duration is one academic year and you return to SST upon completion of exchange program. You are not allowed to seek for a degree in the partner university. Duration of study must be decided before applying for the internal selection and it is not allowed to change once confirmed.

⑨ Is applying for travel insurance mandatory?

You must buy a travel insurance designated by Meiji University, according to university's crisis management policies.

⑩ Preparation

It is your responsibility to complete all necessary application procedures of partner university. You will directly contact partner university after they submitted application documents to the university.

⑪ Visa application

Visa is required to study in a foreign country. Please remember that you are responsible for gathering documents and visa application.

⑫ Will all students be guaranteed for accommodation?

Accommodation is usually not guaranteed for exchange students at most institutions. When applying for on-campus housing, it is important that you apply and pay deposit as early as possible, as it fills up very quickly. Please understand that you are responsible to communicate with the housing office of the host institution to arrange accommodation of your preference. Meiji University is not responsible for communicating with the housing office and organizing students' accommodation.
